2. Monolog

I would like to spend my holiday at home rather than travel somewhere far away. I believe I can still make the most of my break time by staying at home during holidays. For example, this holiday I am planning to throw a sleepover party with my close friends. We are going to stay up all night watching our favourite movies together. We have agreed that we are going to to do it at my house, which is a good thing because I would rather host the party than go to my friends' houses, most of which are quite far. However, I will have to clean my room before, as it has gotten quite messy after I neglected it due to all the papers and exams I had to do for the last week. Although I hate cleaning during holidyas, I still think it's better than having to deal with chaotic traffics out there. I am sure It's going to be a fun and memorable holiday.

3. Pesan singkat lewat media sosial

I am going to travel to Jakarta during the next long weekend, 24 – 26 December.

I would like you to inform me if the hotel rooms are available. Thank you very much.

Next Thursday is going to be my younger sister's birthday. She is going to be 10 years old. We are going to have a simple but awesome birthday party.

My sister gave us the idea to celebrate her birthday last week. She is a creative girl so she wants to include Art and Creativity. In other words, everything for the party will be handmade.

Everyone has their own job. My siblings and I are going to create handmade decorations. My sister would like to decide the theme and tell us what to make. We would like to paint, cut, glue, draw, and do many more creative activities.

We are going to start doing it tomorrow. Our father is going to buy everything we need for the decoration. Our mother is going to make the birthday cake and prepare food as well as drink. I believe it would like to be the coolest party we
